

ANGLICANORUM COETIBUS: DIALOGUE, FELLOWSHIP & PRAYER

March 24-26, 2011

Queen of Apostles Retreat Centre | Mississauga, Ontario

A cordial invitation is extended to clergy and laity as we gather for a conference to discuss Anglicanorum Coetibus (“Groups of Anglicans”) and its implementation in Canada.

Speakers include:

- Fr. Christopher Phillips, Pastor, Our Lady of the Atonement Catholic Church in San Antonio, Texas. He is the founding pastor of the first Anglican Use parish, erected in 1983 under the terms of the Pastoral Provision.
- Archbishop Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto, Delegate, Anglicanorum Coetibus in Canada (as appointed by the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith)

For more information, to register and access other important resources regarding Canada and Anglicanorum Coetibus, visit www.archtoronto.org/ordinariate or call (416) 934-3400 ext 563.